

Meeting the Leadership Challenges of Law Enforcement

“First Line Supervision”

Course Overview

Leadership has never been more critical—or more challenging—in law enforcement than it is today. With agencies facing unprecedented scrutiny, first line supervisors must demonstrate professionalism, ethical decision-making, and the ability to inspire their teams under pressure.

This course is designed for supervisors and aspiring leaders who want to sharpen their leadership skills, grow personally and professionally, and make a lasting impact within their organizations. Through case studies, self-assessment, and practical strategies, participants will gain the tools to navigate leadership challenges, motivate their teams, and foster a culture of accountability and trust.

Course Objectives

- Leadership Primer – Define leadership, examine the characteristics of great leaders, and explore the levels of leadership.
 - Born Leaders vs. Learned Leaders
 - Learning from Mistakes: “The Eraser Principle”
 - What every leader should stop doing
- Leadership Case Study – Analyze real-world leadership styles to identify strengths, weaknesses, and traits that lead to success or failure.
 - Desires vs. Abilities
 - Strengths vs. Weaknesses
 - Understanding what makes the greatest impact
- Characteristics of Great Leaders – Explore the traits and practices of effective leaders and how to apply them in law enforcement.
 - Goal setting, responsibility, work ethic, self-discipline
 - Cooperation, sacrifice, listening skills, morale, and legacy
 - Honesty, excellence, competition, and attitude
- Winning Leadership – Develop practical strategies to become a “winning leader.”
 - How to be a great boss
 - How to win subordinates’ trust immediately
 - How to avoid driving away your best employees
 - How to create loyalty, delegate effectively, and prioritize successfully
 - How to lead with courage
